March, 22 2016 : The White House Reactions on Brussels Attack

US Gov

Washington, DC United States Of America, 23.03.2016, 15:22 Time

USPA NEWS - "This morning, President Obama spoke with the Belgian Prime Minister and made a statement on this morning's horrific attacks in Brussels.

"I want to comment on the terrorist attacks that have taken place in Brussels.

The thoughts and the prayers of the American people are with the people of Belgium. We stand in solidarity with them in condemning these outrageous attacks against innocent people. We will do whatever is necessary to support our friend and ally, Belgium, in bringing to justice those who are responsible. And this is yet another reminder that the world must unite, we must be together, regardless of nationality, or race, or faith, in fighting against the scourge of terrorism. We can -- and will -- defeat those who threaten the safety and security of people all around the world."

Before his remarks, President Obama spoke with Belgian Prime Minister Charles Michel by phone.

President Obama spoke today by phone with Belgian Prime Minister Charles Michel to offer his condolences on behalf of the American people following today's horrific terrorist attacks in Brussels. The President reaffirmed the steadfast support of the United States for Belgium, and offered any assistance necessary in investigating these attacks and bringing those responsible to justice. The President reiterated that the United States stands together with the people of Belgium, as well as NATO and the European Union, and once again pledged the full cooperation and support of the United States in our shared commitment to defeat the scourge of terrorism."
